Finance Updates

Village Adopts Budget for Fiscal Year 2026

We're excited to share that the Village's proposed Annual Budget for Fiscal Year 2026 has been finalized and adopted. The total budget of $60.4 million reflects our ongoing dedication to fiscal responsibility and thoughtful planning, designed to meet the immediate needs of our residents while advancing long-term community goals.

The proposed budget and millage rate of 1.9200 mills were first presented to Council during the July Budget Workshop. Final approval and adoption of the budget and millage rate were held on September 11, 2025 and September 18, 2025.

To explore the full details of the adopted budget, please visit our website or click the link below.

VAST

Volunteers Against Scams Team

The mission of the Volunteer Against Scams Team (VAST) is to advocate and assist citizens of Palm Beach County who have been targeted as victims of financial crimes. VAST core objectives include preventing additional victimization and providing assistance in recovering from crimes involving identity theft, fraud and other mainstream financial crimes.

The primary goal of VAST is to educate citizens to prevent scam victimization, provide information with regard to available resources and to "harden the target" against future financial victimization and losses.
